2.1.2 Identity - If pyrethrin has been used in the formulation (see Table 1), then that formulation shall comply with Identity Test as described in Appendix A of IS:1051-1980* and shall not contain any synthetic pyrethroids. If any spots, in addition to those given by the standard reference sample are detected, it shall be ensured that these additional spots are not due to any synthetic pyrethroids. If the presence of any synthetic pyrethroids is established in the TLC testing, the total pyrethrin content as described in Appendix B of IS:1051-1980 should not be determined, as synthetic pyrethroids would analyse wrongly as pyrethrins.'
